

Management Analyst Ray Navera began working for the Covina Police Department in 2010. His areas of responsibility include contract administration, facilities maintenance, budget administration, and research and analysis. Prior to arriving in Covina, Ray worked for the City of Corona as an Analyst in the City Manager's Office and the Public Works Department. He graduated from the University of California, Irvine with a B.A. in Political Science and obtained his Masters Degree in Public Administration from Cal State Fullerton.